*Participation fee is transferable: a participant, who wishes to cancel, can transfer the registration to another participant who has not already submitted a registration form. Participation fees paid will be refunded upon receipt of full payment from the replacement team. Aircraft fees are not transferable.

Air Rally Cancellation/itinerary changes:

Should the International Air Rally Team be forced to cancel the event due to factors beyond their control, and postponing is not possible, they will refund the participants according to refunds obtained by accommodations and service providers who received full payment.

During the Rally, should a diversion to another destination due to bad weather or safety reason occurs, relocation and transportation and other costs associated with this change will be the participant's responsibility. No refund for previous arrangements.

International Air Rally is not responsible for teams affected by delays, change of itinerary, diversions. Participants must follow the program and schedule established by the International Air Rally Organizing Committee unless security dictates otherwise. Bad weather may cause flight delays or require to wait for a window to fly to the next destination.

All for one and one for all ! Team work and solidarity

Team work will determine when it is best to fly but the captain always makes his/her decision at the end.

For over 20 years, Rally participants have enjoyed amazing and safe flying experiences with Rally teammates working together to insure the safe flying for all aircraft, from the slowest to the fastest.

The Air Rally is a unique group flying experience. Camaraderie spirit, mutual assistance and team support. Scout strategy: sending faster aircraft ahead relaying weather conditions has always proven to be best way to keep everyone safe and together. Participants diverting from intended route for other reason than safety, mechanical, health reasons, will be excluded from the group and their participation will be terminated with no refund.

International Air Rally attendance

Air Rally participants understand that much effort has been invested in setting a Program and itinerary in consideration of support, safety and arrangements made by hosting destinations and they are expected to follow the program and itinerary proposed. To the contrary, International Air Rally cannot provide any attendance or support to participants who choose to divert for other reasons than mechanical problem or weather.

Event Code of Conduct & Anti-Harassment Policy

The Air Rally is a wonderful experience: friendship and collaboration is the key !

Should a participant engage in harassing or disturbing behavior, the event organizers may take any action they deem appropriate, including warning or expelling the offender from the event with no refund.

The International Air Rally Committee reserves the right to disqualify (without refund) a team or member of a team representing a risk, and this, to ensure the safety and the well-being of the group.

Every participant signing up (registration) has read and understands the Terms and conditions above.
