Starting point of _____
_____ The Rally

A Vibrant City
Europe with a Canadian twist

Located in the province of Quebec along the St. Lawrence River,

Montreal is one of Canada's most vibrant and culturally rich cities. Known for its blend of European charm and modern flair, the city offers historic architecture, world renowned cuisine, and a relaxed atmosphere, making it the perfect starting point for the Air rally.

YOUR HOME IN QUEBEC CITY

- Our first official rally stop brings us to Quebec City, where we will spend two nights immersed in one of Canada's most historic settings. The hotel's location places you right in the heart of Old Quebec, within walking distance of landmarks such as Château Frontenac, Place Royale, and the city's fortified walls, making it easy to explore on foot.

Old Quebec
Immerse yourself in history

Situated along the St. Lawrence River, Quebec City is a UNESCO World Heritage site known for its European charm, cobblestone streets, and rich history.

From local cafés and boutique shops to scenic views and cultural attractions, the city offers a unique blend of old-world character and vibrant atmosphere.

YOUR HOME IN DIGBY, NOVA SCOTIA

- Our next stop brings us to the coastal town of Digby, where we will spend two nights along the waterfront. The accommodations are ideally positioned right by the harbor, offering immediate access to local restaurants, shops, and scenic views of the Annapolis Basin—perfect for enjoying the maritime atmosphere just steps away.

Maritime Air

Enjoy the Coast from the comfort of your room

Located on the shores of the Bay of Fundy, Digby is known for having some of the highest tides in the world and for its famous scallops.

This charming fishing town offers a relaxed coastal setting, with opportunities to explore nearby trails, take in ocean views, and experience authentic East Coast hospitality.

YOUR HOME IN ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND

- Our next stop takes us to St. John's, where we will spend two nights in a charming, old-English inspired hotel located just minutes from the downtown core. Its central setting provides easy access to George Street, the harborfront, and nearby historic landmarks, making it ideal for exploring the city on foot.

Maritime heritage

Old English charm

As the capital of Newfoundland and Labrador, St. John's is one of North America's oldest cities, known for its colorful "Jellybean Row" houses and strong maritime heritage.

From the views at Signal Hill to the character of Quidi Vidi village, the city offers a unique mix of history, culture, and vibrant local life.

YOUR HOME IN CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I.

- Our final destination brings us to Charlottetown, where we will spend two nights in a modern, centrally located property in the heart of downtown. Its prime location places you steps from the waterfront, Victoria Row, and a variety of restaurants and shops — an ideal setting to relax and celebrate the end of the rally.
